Against All Odds

A novel · Published January 27, 2026 · eBook & paperback at all major retailers

Xavier Jones is 22, fixes cars at Pete's Auto Shop in East Cleveland, and has seven hundred songs nobody has heard. With eviction looming and a payment due by Friday, a small Cleveland label offers him a deal and a trip to Nashville, where hitmakers want his song radio-ready. Now he has to decide what success is worth if the music is no longer his.

The hardest choice is staying yourself.
